"Fair Phyllis"
Three 4-part madrigals involving Phyllis
arranged for Saxophone Quartet

Expression and speeds are editorial. Slurs indicate the original vocal syllables, while commas indicate phrase endings. Soft-tonguing throughout is suggested.
Phyllis, farewell, I may no longer live - Thomas Bateson (1604)

\[ d = 90 \]
SOPRANO SAXOPHONE

"Fair Phyllis"
Three 4-part madrigals involving Phyllis
arranged for Saxophone Quartet

Expression and speeds are editorial. Slurs indicate the original vocal syllables, while commas indicate phrase endings. Soft-tonguing throughout is suggested.

Fair Phyllis I saw sitting all alone - John Farmer (1599)
arr. John Kilpatrick

Phyllis, farewell, I may no longer live - Thomas Bateson (1604)

© 2011 John Kilpatrick
This edition may be freely copied and performed
Amyntas with his Phyllis fair - Francis Pilkington (1613)
Expression and speeds are editorial. Slurs indicate the original vocal syllables, while commas indicate phrase endings. Soft-tonguing throughout is suggested.

Fair Phyllis I saw sitting all alone - John Farmer (1599)

Phyllis, farewell, I may no longer live - Thomas Bateson (1604)
Amyntas with his Phyllis fair - Francis Pilkington (1613)
Expression and speeds are editorial. Slurs indicate the original vocal syllables, while commas indicate phrase endings. Soft-tonguing throughout is suggested.

Fair Phyllis I saw sitting all alone - John Farmer (1599)

Phyllis, farewell, I may no longer live - Thomas Bateson (1604)
Amyntas with his Phyllis fair - Francis Pilkington (1613)

\( \text{\textcopyright 2023} \)
Expression and speeds are editorial. Slurs indicate the original vocal syllables, while commas indicate phrase endings. Soft-tonguing throughout is suggested.

Fair Phyllis I saw sitting all alone - John Farmer (1599)

Phyllis, farewell, I may no longer live - Thomas Bateson (1604)
Amyntas with his Phyllis fair - Francis Pilkington (1613)